*only available with subscription to Advanced Lite, Advanced, and Ultra packages.

Restart TV is an added feature to your television subscription that can be used to watch portions of programming you may have missed. If you know you want to watch a program, it is still recommended to record the program to ensure viewership. If you do not have the ULTRA television package, but you do have the HBO, Cinemax, Starz or Encore add-on package, you will still be able to use Restart TV on those channels.
